

Hope's Per Pupil Cost Below State Average

Rockefeller, Nixon Polite at Meeting

NEW YORK (AP) — Politically feuding Vice President Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller met cordially at a British trade exhibition today and smilingly shook hands.

The personal encounter was the first since their recent exchange of statements concerning the future of the Republican party and the nation.

Nixon had arrived first at the New York Coliseum, with Prince Philip, who was here to officially open the exhibition.

The vice president was standing in an anteroom off the main lobby when Gov. and Mrs. Rockefeller arrived.

Nixon strode over to Rockefeller and his extended hand Rockefeller grasped it, pumped it heartily and placed his left hand on Nixon's right shoulder in a characteristic gesture.

About 40 specially invited guests were in the glass-walled room, but the public and press were barred.

It could not be learned immediately what words were expressed by Nixon and Rockefeller. From what could be seen, they appeared to be exchanging the usual type of greetings and banter of any two acquaintances meeting after an interval.

The vice president also warmly greeted Mrs. Rockefeller.

The governor and Mrs. Rockefeller proceeded on to the dais ahead of Nixon.

Nixon representing president Eisenhower, walked to the dais side by side with the prince a few minutes later. They were preceded by a fanfare of trumpets.

Several thousand persons crowded into the main floor of the coliseum for the opening ceremony applauded.

Rockefeller joined in the applause but at this point there was no exchange between the governor and the vice president.

Under the dais seating arrangement, they were two seats removed. Sitting between them were Prince Philip and the Rt. Hon. Lord Rootes, G.B.E., joint chairman of the exhibition.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner extended greetings to the assemblage on behalf of the city, Rockefeller on behalf of the state and Nixon on behalf of the President.

Each warmly applauded the others' speeches.

Several thousand per on pressed against ropes outside the coliseum to get a look at Prince Philip and Rockefeller as they arrived.

The prince and Nixon drove up in a gray Rolls Royce convertible from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The prince said earlier the people of the United States and Britain have a never-ending job to do in preserving friendly Anglo-American relations.

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller greeted each other with smiles and great cordiality as they met today at a British trade exhibition in the New York Coliseum.

The two men shook hands warmly and exchanged greetings in a small closed-to-the-public anteroom off the main lobby.

Also at the Coliseum was Prince Philip of Britain, who was on Arkansas' pupil cost per child, recently in the news, has been revised to $205 which should take the state off the bottom of the list of states.

Supt. James H. Jones submits these figures — Hope sent during the past year only $169 per pupil without the debt service and only $204 per pupil with the debt service. The state averages is $205 without debt service. This is not only way below the national average of $285 per pupil, but is far below the state average.

This is evidenced even with an overall adjustment in assessments by the equalization board and special assessors.

Assessments in 1957 totaled $6,959,189, which gives District I-A $219,212 for the 1958-59 school year. Assessments in 1958 amounted to $7,695,021 or $242,392 for the 1959-60 school year. Assessment in 1959 total $7,991,447 which means $251,730 for the schools during the 1960-61 term — this is an increase in school money of only $32,518.

From 1958-1959 the assessments raise amounted to $296,426. The increase on city property was $219,955; acreage increase was only $40,030; Public utilities increased by $69,014 and personal assessments dropped $32,573 in a single year.

Hope School District's minimum budget aid (from the state) totaled $201,820 in 1957-58; then it dropped to $178,709 during the 1958-59 term but picked up some to $191,065 for the 1959-60 year.

Teachers' salaries for the 1957-58 term totaled $319,135 but dropped to $318,171 in 1958-59 and then increased to $323,250 for the last 1959-60 term. Another big expense is the commercial bonds which cost the district $68,428 in 1957-58; cost $64,331 in 1958-59 and cost $65,397 in 1959-60. The revolving local fund for the past three school terms rose from $7,548 to $11,066 and to $15,406.

Estimated increase in tax cost per family following the advancement in assessments is about $7. This is based on an estimated $4,000 families in Hope School District I-A and is strictly an estimate.

(Editor's Note: Hope's assessments and expenditures as compared to other schools in Arkansas will be the subject of another article about public schools).

Church Group to Attend Camp School

Youth of local Southside Assembly will journey to the northern part of the State to attend the Wildwood Full Gospel Youth Camp at Bentonville. Plans are in the making to leave the church by bus Sunday at 2 p. m. and to drive late Sunday night in order to be ready for class sessions which begin at 8:30 a. m. on Monday morning. Rev. and Mrs. Wess Weston of Magnolia will be the camp directors. Rev. S. Joseph Gena, pastor of the local church will be camp teacher and will direct the camp orchestra.

Man Killed in Fall at Helena Plant

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — One man plunged 70 feet to his death and two others were injured gravely today in an accident at the huge Arkansas Power & Light Co. steam generating plant being constructed near here.

Dolphus D. Smith, 24, of Batesville, died shortly after arrival at a Helena hospital. His skull was fractured when it struck the rail of a spur track beside the plant.

Leonard Doster of Amity and Carl Phelan of Siloam Springs, both in their early 20s, were injured.

Doster was reported in critical condition and Phelan, in serious condition.

Doster's fall was broken by a beam about 30 feet from the ground. He held onto the beam so tightly in his unconscious condition that fellow employees said they had to "pry" him loose.

Doster suffered a broken shoulder, broken ribs and spleen injuries.

Phelan, who fell to the ground, suffered internal injuries, back injuries and fractured arms.

The men were working on some tubing on the outside of the plant boiler. A hook pulled loose, letting the tubing give way and plunging the men into the air other workmen said.

Mrs. Lou Weaver, 82, Dies at Home in Fulton

Mrs. Lou Weaver, aged 82, a resident of Fulton for 37 years, died Thursday at her home. She was a native of Hempstead County.

Survivors include six sons, Ernest Morten of Wade, Okla., Davis and Sam Weaver of Fulton; G. D. Weaver of Texarkana; W. O. Weaver of Shreveport and J. L. Weaver of Wichita Falls, Texas; and four daughters, Mrs. Leonard Hughes of Fulton, Mrs. D. S. Shuffield of Malyern, Mrs. Denman Wylie of Emmet and Mrs. W. N. Crouch of Monroe, La.

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p. m. Friday at Fulton Union Church by the Rev. John Shaddox. Burial by Herndon Cornelius was to be in Yellow Creek Cemetery.

McNab Man Promoted to College Dean

Dr. R. C. Cannon

SAN DIEGO — Dr. R. Carroll Cannon, Dean of Students at California Western University in San Diego, has been appointed the new Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. William C. Rust, university president, announced recently.

Citing growth among the administration as a necessary adjunct to gains in student enrollment, Dr. Rust hailed the academic promotion of the native Arkansas educator.

Dr. Cannon graduated from Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas, in 1939 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He is the son of the late William M. Cannon of McNab and Mrs. Eva (Cannon) Rosenbaum. Born in McNab, Arkansas, he attended Saratoga High School.

He holds the Ed. D. degree from New York University and a Masters Degree from Pepperdine College, Los Angeles. During 12 years of education administration at the high school and college level, he spent three years in Japan organizing the first junior college in that country. He has been an ordained minister in the Church of Christ since 1939.

Prior to joining the faculty at California Western University, Dr. Cannon served as Dean of Students at Pepperdine College.

He is a member of the Association of Higher Education, the American Personnel Guidance Association, the National Vocational Guidance Association, the American Association of University Professors and Kappa Delta Pi.

He has one brother and three sisters residing in Arkansas: Rev. John Cannon, Mrs. Cowan Brown, Mrs. Clarence Collins, McNab; Mrs. Guy Porterfield, Little Rock.

Dr. Cannon is married to Dr. Nona (Hanes) Cannon, a native of Keys, Oklahoma. She is Associate Professor of Home Economics at San Diego State College in charge of a graduate program in Family Living.

The Cannons have an 8-week-old adopted baby daughter, Lyboma, and reside in a lovely home on Point Loma overlooking the Pacific Ocean and San Diego Bay.

Truck, Train Hit at Local Crossing

Kansas City Southern passenger train No. 31 hit a truck at the Third and Louisiana Street crossing about 5:15 a. m. today. No body was hurt. The truck, owned by the White Trucking Co. of Dallas, was damaged considerably, reported Officers Shirley and Martin.

Senate Group Okays Money for Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee voted today to speed development of a spy-in-the-sky military satellite and provide additional modern weapons for the Army's combat troops.

The actions came at a closed-door session of the committee as it tackled another 218 million dollars on the big annual defense money bill.

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said this pushed the total to $40,344,897,000.

This is over a billion dollars above President Eisenhower's original budget request and about the same as the amount previously approved by the House.

Chavez said he hopes the Senate will act on the bill next week.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash.) reported earlier that the committee put back into the bill 204 million for the Bomarc missile program which the House cut out.

Chavez said that $83,800,000 was added for rushing development of the military satellite Samos, which is designed to take detailed photographs of most parts of the earth and relay these back to ground stations.

Asked if the committee felt the satellite could replace the high-altitude recently was downed in Soviet flying U2 planes, one of which re-

"I think it's better than the U2 ussia, Chavez said:

"The purse string group also added 125 million more for Army modernization, including new tanks and other weapons for the Army ground troops.

The defense funds subcommittee previously had added some $28 millions to the bill, including slightly over 37 million for new tanks and weapons for ground troops.

Links Dauley to Threat to City Workers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Amis Guthridge charged today that City Manager Dean Dauley threatened dismissal of any city employee who goes before the Pulaski County Grand Jury to back up the segregationist lawyer charges in a vice probe.

Dauley promptly denied the charge and described it as "a complete fabrication."

Guthridge, a candidate for attorney general, has declared syndicate type vice operations exist in Pulaski County.

He asked for a jury investigation recently but the jury said he produced no witnesses or evidence when he appeared before it.

The segregationist leader contended he wasn't given enough time to gather witnesses. He asked again that the jury hear him, this time giving enough advance notice for getting his witnesses together.

Pulaski Circuit Judge William J. Kirby has set a jury meeting for Monday. Kirby said he acted at the request of some of the jurors, but that he didn't know what subjects would be brought up.

Guthridge has said some of his witnesses include city officials.

Hamilton Infant Buried Today

Thomas Karry Hamilton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Hamilton of Spring Hill, died yesterday in a local hospital.

Survivors include a sister, Dani Lunn and a brother, Randy Joe; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown. Graveside services were held at 11 a. m. at Evening Shade by the Rev. James Shaddox. Herndon-Cornelius was in charge of arrangements.

Department Store Sales Dip Some

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve Dist. last week were one per cent under those of the similar week last year.

The Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis said the Little Rock area was up 18 per cent and the Memphis area had higher sales of five per cent but those were more than offset by declines in other centers.

Murray Now Head of Searcy Dist.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Rev. Alvin Murray, now of Searcy, was designated superintendent of the Batesville District of the North Arkansas Methodist Conference today.

He succeeds Dr. Paul E. Bumpers, Superintendent since 1957, who was assigned to First Methodist Church of Jonesboro.

Superintendents of the remaining six districts were retained. Pastoral assignments, including those of superintendents, was the final business of the conference, which has been holding its annual meeting at Western Methodist Assembly on nearby Mount Sequoyah since Tuesday.

The Rev. J. Lillian Watson, who has been pastor of Jonesboro's First Church since 1956, was assigned to First Methodist Church at West Memphis.

He succeeds the Rev. Dan H. Robinson, who was appointed to the First Methodist Church at North Little Rock.

Dr. W. Henry Gomodue, pastor of the North Little Rock church since 1956, will go to First Methodist Church at Searcy, which Murray has served since 1954.

Changes were made in 93 of the conference's 229 pastoral charges, 1960.

Population Loss Laid to Lack of Jobs

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP) — John Harsh, president of the Arkansas Municipal League, said last night that Arkansas is losing population because of lack of jobs and the inability of the state and local governments to provide the basic needs of people.

Harsh said these factors show up in the fact that Arkansas "is not getting its share of new industry."

The Magnolia mayor spoke to about 100 city officials from 13 northwest Arkansas counties in a meeting of the Northwest District of the Arkansas Municipal League.

"We can solve our particular problems when we develop more local pride and clean up, paint up and fix up our cities," Harsh said.

"We must make local governments attractive and have pride in the way we conduct them. Good local government must consider the welfare of the people and must secure adequate finances to meet its needs."

Harsh added that every dollar spent in local government brings in more money to the state.

Arkansas lost 7.2 per cent of its population between 1950 and 1960.

Detained Over Hour; Won't Stop the Tour

TOKYO (AP) — Ten thousand screaming leftist demonstrators, fighting against an Eisenhower visit to Japan, besieged the car of White House press secretary James C. Hagerty for more than an hour today, slashing the tires and cracking windows.

Finally a helicopter was used to rescue Hagerty, U.S. Ambassador to Japan Douglas MacArthur II, and White House appointments secretary Thomas B. Stephens. None of them was injured.

Hagerty and Stephens had just arrived to scout Eisenhower's trip, and started into Tokyo from the airport, along the route Eisenhower is scheduled to follow nine days hence. That visit is still on Hagerty announced, despite today's demonstration — an the White House in Washington added confirmation that the plans still hold.

Tokyo police said they had been caught by surprise today, though the demonstration against Hagerty had been announced in advance.

"It was a big blunder for us," a police spokesman said.

The Japanese government apologized.

Hagerty told a news conference tonight:

"We are sure that the demonstrations in no way reflect the feeling and the attitude of the great majority of the Japanese people for whom America has the warmest friendship."

In Washington, associate press secretary Anne Wheaton said the President had "expressed gratification" that Hagerty and White House appointment secretary Thomas B. Stephens, who was with him, were not hurt by the demonstrators.

Asked whether the President would still go to Japan, Mrs. Wheaton said, "I know of no change in plans."

Hagerty, here to complete arrangements for Eisenhower's visit, said the demonstration was obviously carefully planned. He said the fact that the demonstrators were singing the "International" — the song of international communism — raised doubts whether they even had allegiance to Japan.

The demonstrators, out to convince Hagerty that Eisenhower should postpone his trip, claim their real target is Kishi because his Liberal Democratic party pushed the new U. S. Japan security alliance through the lower house of Parliament in a violent session May 20.

The demonstrations had been called out by Zengakuren, Japan's extreme leftist student federation, and the leftist Shoyo Federation of Labor Unions.

Japanese police finally cleared an opening around the battered car in which Hagerty, Stephens and U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II had been held prisoner. Then a U.S. Marine helicopter swooped down, picked them up and flew them to an Army base.

From there they drove to the back gate of the heavily guarded U.S. Embassy and slipped in, escaping 6,000 demonstrators massed on front. Within a few minutes, however, several hundred students rushed up to the back gate and battled police, who kept them from breaking into the embassy compound.

Hagerty refused to see leaders of the demonstrators, and the crowd settled down for an all-night vigil in front of the embassy, chanting and shouting slogans attacking Hagerty, the President's visit and Prime Minister land to officially open the 200-million-dollar British exposition. Philip rode to the Coliseum in a car with Nixon.

The press and public were barred from the small room in which the Nixon-Rockefeller meeting took place but about 40 specially invited guests were present.

A bank of glass doors was covered with curtains. Nevertheless, it could be seen from outside that Nixon, after exchanging greetings with several persons, walked toward the rear of the room farthest from the entrance.

A few minutes later, Rockefeller arrived. When Nixon saw the governor, he immediately strode toward him with his right hand extended.

The governor accepted the hand shake vigorously and placed his left hand on Nixon's right shoulder in friendly fashion. They smiled and exchanged greetings.

Earlier, Prince Philip declared that people of both the United States and Great Britain have a never-ending job to do in preserving friendly Anglo-American relations.

Nobusuke Kishi, armed American guards stood watch at the embassy entrances. It was the most violent anti-American outburst since leftist opponents of the new security pact began staging daily demonstrations three weeks ago against the Kishi government and Eisenhower's visit.

The airport demonstration had been promised for days, and MacArthur came out by helicopter to escape the thousands blocking one access road to the airport and lining the other. But Hagerty apparently refused to bow to the leftists and chose to try to reach the city by car as originally scheduled.

Several hundred police at first made only token attempts to intervene as the mob of students and labor union members besieged Hagerty after his arrival from Okinawa to complete arrangement for Eisenhower's style.

Shouting "Hagerty go home," the mob rushed the 1956 embassy Cadillac as it started off.

The screaming, chanting demonstrators beat on the sides of the car, kicked at the doors and cracked windows on both sides. Some crawled on top. But no one tried to enter the car or physically harm the occupants. Nor did they molest other American cars in the caravan.

American plainclothes guards and embassy officials held their bodies against the outside of the car to protect those inside. Hagerty and the other occupants sat inside, calmly smoking. Hagerty took pictures with a small camera.

Finally 1,000 police rushed in. The mob surged back again, but the helicopter had landed and a flying wedge of men rushed Hagerty, MacArthur and Stephens to it. The helicopter lifted them away before the crowd could close in again.

Says Medical Mess Fault of Faubus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joe C. Hardin charged last night that political interference by the present administration is undermining the effectiveness of the University of Arkansas Medical Center.

Hardin said in a speech in Texarkana that the medical center is not being used to its maximum advantage "with a high percentage of its beds unused and wasted, both for patient care and teaching purposes."

Hardin is one of four men opposing Gov. Orval E. Faubus for the Democratic nomination for governor in the July 26 primary.

Another candidate, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, promised yesterday that if elected he would push legislation to bring teachers and county and city employees under the state's Workmen's Compensation Law death benefits.

Hardin said many doctors are moving out of Arkansas and the medical center is not being used efficiently to train new ones.

"We must and we will when I am elected governor make full use of the medical center for training doctors to care for Arkansas' sick," he said.

Hardin added that the waste of facilities is "a crime against rural Arkansas in particular, since doctors are so hard to come by for small communities."

He said the primary reason many Arkansas communities are "crying for doctors and are unable to get them" is political interference in the workings of the medical center.

Bennett's statement, issued from his Little Rock campaign headquarters, noted that teacher retirements, social security and Arkansas' city retirement systems "do not afford widows and children a sufficient sum to live on."

He added that if he is elected he will introduce legislation extending workmen's compensation coverage to teachers and county city workers.

"This must be done," Bennett explained, "either by authorizing school districts, counties and cities to extend their funds for coverage on a death benefit basis, or by utilizing available state funds for self-insuring, or perhaps a combination of both."

Hardin was scheduled to visit industrial plants in Texarkana today, then return to his Little Rock headquarters.

Vanderbilt Has Faculty Troubles

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)

Vanderbilt University today faced the possibility of more faculty resignations after efforts Thursday night apparently failed to resolve a conflict which grew out of a racial issue.

Divinity School Dean J. Robert Nelson, who with 10 other faculty members resigned when Vanderbilt refused to readmit expelled Negro divinity student James M. Lawson said, Thursday night Chancellor Harvie Branscomb had offered to resign if certain conditions involving the case were not met.

Lawson was expelled for his part in demonstration activities last March.

Branscomb, in Williamsburg, Va., said he made no such offer "for publication." Nelson said the statement was made in a letter which, though unsigned, was attested to and witnessed by another professor "as having been dictated by Branscomb."

Also, there were unconfirmed reports that six members of the medical school faculty were considering tendering their resignations.

Meanwhile, the Chicago Theological Seminary has conferred jobs to Nelson and the 10 professors. It also offered a position to Dr. Walter J. Harrelson, dean of the University of Chicago Divinity School.

FBI Affiliates Elect Officers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)

Pine Bluff Police Chief Norman Young has been elected president of the Arkansas Affiliates of the FBI National Academy.

The organization is formed of police officers who have attended the academy.

Lt. George Ford of Blytheville was elected vice president and Lt. Delon Cox of Little Rock was named secretary-treasurer.

was flanked by seven branched candelabra holding cathedral lamps, regal lilies and magnolia foliage in Grecian urns and an open Bible marked with white satin streamers placed on the pulpit stand formed the background for the bride couple as the double ring candlelight ceremony was solemnized by Mr. Million Peoples of Saratoga. White magnolia blossoms and white ribbons marked the pews.

Miss Glenda Holloman and Miss Sherrill Moore of Camden sang "I Love You Truly." "Because" and the processional and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her bridal gown of silk organza over satin with charming lace at various points of interest and featured a chapel train. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a Swedish tulle sprinkled with rhinestones and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley, orchids and stephanotis. She also wore the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue that included a pearl necklace belonging to her mother, Mrs. Wynn.

Mrs. Marshall Long of St. Louis attended the bride as matron of honor, Miss Helen Barksdale of Memphis, Tenn. As maid of honor and Miss Carolyn Wilson as bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of lilac silk organza over taffeta, matching flap brim hats and lilac shoes. They carried crescent bouquets of lilac fringed carnations.

Ronnie Barksdale served his brother as best man.

Candles were lighted by Charles Jones and James Barnes, who also served as ushers with Granville Johnson and Henry Shackelford.

The guests were registered by Miss Rita Morris and Miss Kay Henry. Rice bags were distributed by Miss Linda Moore and Miss Mildred Buchanan.

Mrs. Wynn chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of bone lace trimmed with bone organza with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Barksdale, the bridegroom's mother, wore a blue lace dress and matching hat. Her accessories were bone and her corsage an orchid.

For traveling, the bride chose a bone linen tunic frock embroidered with pink flowers and bone accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet at her shoulder.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Houston, Texas.

Out of town guests included Mr.

and Mrs. Hudson Henry, John, Judy and Betty, Mrs. Andy Cressett, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Barksdale and Lynn, Mrs. Louise Leebetter and John of Pine Bluff, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barlow, Miss Blanch Henry of Bluff City, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Moore, Sherrill, Linda and Martha Jane, Ted Hughes, Miss Anne Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holloman and Glenda of Camden, Roy Block, Mrs. Joe Johnson of Texarkana, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellis of Hope.

Rehearsal Dinner Feted

Bridal Couple

Mrs. Albert Barksdale feted her son, James William Barksdale, and his bride-elect, Miss June Wynn with a rehearsal dinner Saturday evening at her home. Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. Franklin Garrett were co-hostesses.

Potted plants and arrangements of white carnations were placed at points of interest in the living room.

The dinner was served buffet style from a table over laid with an imported pink linen cloth with lace inserts. An arrangement of white carnations and greenery formed the centerpiece. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Miss Carolyn Wilson, Granville Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wynn and Miss Helen Barksdale of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Glenda Holloman, Miss

DOROTHY DIX

Unmarried Mothers Can't Face Parents

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am 15 and pregnant. The boy that is responsible is 16. I have gone to an out-of-town doctor. My boy friend suggested getting married. I dread to tell my parents because they have so much faith in me. I must tell them. How should I do it? Would you please print this in your column? I do not want your answer coming to my house. —A.B.V.

Dear A.B.V.: You must have courage to confide in your parents. Perhaps you had better tell your mother first. Plan in advance what you will say. The first reaction will probably be shock, dismay and possibly anger, but this will pass. If your parents know you need their help — and you do — they will not fail you.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am 17 years old and the only child now. I love a boy and he loves me. He is 19 and just my type. But, when we are together, we both are upset by sexual emotions. We have never done anything and it is a great strain on us. Because of this I broke with him. Now I am so lonely that I do a lot of crying. I would like to go back but I am afraid. Maybe if I got a job I would be too busy to think and in time forget him. What shall I do? —C.

Dear C: I have purposely used your letter in the same column with the above from A.B.V. But I don't advocate putting the boy out of your life. That's running away from temptation. Stay and face it — both of you! Learn self-discipline. Channel your energies into other directions. Be physically and mentally active. Strive to perfect yourselves in whatever you do — be it tennis, writing, painting, singing, hiking. Take charge — of yourselves!

Dear Dorothy Dix:

Every time I lend something to my brother, he will not bring it back. If I tell him he can't have a certain article, my mother makes me give it to him. I am not a selfish person and I don't mind lending my things if I get them back. Do you think this fair? —Angry Sister

Dear Angry Sister: Next time your brother wants something of yours, make a temporary trade. Turn his borrowing into a game of give-and-take. Ask your mother to judge values. Call the game Fair Play.

Send your problem to "Dorothy Dix." Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Loses Suit for Arm Loss Damage

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Cecil Lee Powers of Russellville has lost his federal court bid to collect $50,000 in insurance for loss of an arm.

A U.S. District Court jury yesterday decided in favor of St. Paul Fire and Marine and Continental Casualty, two insurance firms Powers sued.

A third company, Lloyds of London, was withdrawn as a defendant shortly before the trial opened. Attorneys said Powers reached an out-of-court settlement with Lloyds.

Bible Comment

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

Sunday School lessons for a long time have not been confined to one source or series. Some churchmen, differing with what they considered too liberal an attitude have issued a more conservative series of their own and special studies have long been in use by various church-school groups, which usually don't use the name "Sunday School."

Without any tangible evidence as to what lessons or studies are most commonly in use, I assume that the long-established "International Lessons" still lead, and I have been interested in the title of the lesson for June 12: "The Two Ways."

Without reference to the specific lesson treatment intended, the title has an international and specific application in a manner that could not very well have been anticipated.

In two ways, the summit collapse in Paris, could hardly have offered more precise, if tragic exemplification.

There are underlying and very real religious aspects that ought not to be ignored by all who have regard for moral and spiritual values.

If it were not so tragic and so dangerous, there would be something almost humorous and pathetic in a Khrushchev raising his hands to heaven and calling upon a God, in whom as an atheist he doesn't believe, to witness that his hands were free from espionage.

As everybody knows his spies have been active for years in the U.S.A. and in practically all countries.

The claim was as false as the appeal to a God in whom he didn't believe.

But there are deeper matters involved. Face-to-face with the two ways in a divided world, President Eisenhower arrives divisions so strong that eruption of the might wipe out the world as we know it, there is an increasing obligation upon all who name the name of Christ, and upon all who settle the settlement of Philippine war damage in other names share the same age claims and "respect for Phil" moral and spiritual ideals, to re-appearing sovereignty over U. S. assess the part they must play in Military Bases here.

Girls State Elects a Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Miss Doreen McCoy of Russellville was elected governor of Arkansas Girls State today.

The 16-year-old winner beat Nancy Castiberry of Crossett, 373-310.

Miss McCoy said she was so excited she could hardly believe it.

"It's the highest honor I ever received," she told newsmen.

Miss McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. McCoy of Russellville, will be a high school senior this fall. She plans to enroll at Hendrix College in Conway after graduation.

Her Nationalist Party won a landslide victory over the Federalists in the election.

Girls State is an annual exercise in civil government. The week-long event is held at nearby Camp Robinson, with girls from throughout the state in attendance.

Other winners included: Judy Carl Lee of England, lieutenant governor; Mary Nell Coe of Tuckerman, secretary of state; Murray Raspberry of Helena, state treasurer; Judy Adams of Fort Smith, attorney general; Becky Bridges of Little Rock, state auditor; Charlotte Bailey of Jacksonville, state land commissioner; and Sue Cummins of Conway, chief justice of the Supreme Court.

Associate justices of the Supreme Court are Kathleen Raff of Helena, Phyllis Wyke of Searcy, Kay Kyle of Marked Tree, Virginia Zambie of Helena, Jeffery Phippe of North Little Rock and Sandra Smith of Texarkana.

A Keen Observer

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—When police ended the first solo flight of Ronald Mallik today, the family knew the first thing they wanted to know was where he learned to drive.

His father, Adam Mallik, recalled that Ronald had always been a "keen observer" while flying with him.

The 16-year-old winner beat Nancy Castiberry of Crossett, 373-310.

Miss McCoy said she was so excited she could hardly believe it.

Gamble-Stuart Marriage Announced

Miss Everlene Gamble became the bride of Willie Stuart on Saturday night, June 4. The marriage took place in the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. Morris, with Rev. Morris officiating.

The bride wore a dress of blue lace over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of blue and white Hydrangea and Jasmine tied with a blue and white ribbon. Her veil was blue.

The groom wore a white dinner jacket over black trousers.

Those attending the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Stuart, parents of the groom, Judie Mae Scott and Margaret Standokes, sisters of the bride.

Willie Pearl Harmon, cousin of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Boather, Miss Mary Jones, Mrs. Ethel Muldrew and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stuart.

A reception was held at the home of the groom.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Yerger High School.

Park Activities

During the next few days a series of articles pertaining to activities in the Negro City Park will appear in this column. The aims and activities are listed and written by Roscoe Smith, Supervisor of City Park.

The city park's recreation program will operate on a much larger scale this summer as compared to the past. The entire park has been improved considerably in the last two years.

You see, I believe that education is a process that must take place in every individual life, whether the environment is good or bad. That's the main reason I strive to provide activities with worthwhile objectives so as to make a worthy influence on the community development.

The aims and objectives of the city park's recreation program are based upon the needs and interests of youth in America, namely, the development of individuals habits and attitudes favorable to the wise use of leisure time.

You see, no longer are we primarily concerned with physical development alone - as was true several years ago when the major emphasis was placed upon baseball at city park. However, we still intend to develop a good baseball team as we did last year. Our record, 28 wins and no losses, and we played teams such as Texarkana and Magnolia.

Our little league team lost only one game last year, and it was to Texarkana.

Coming And Going

Miss Gwendolyn Booker left recently for Omaha, Neb., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Juanita Mitchell.

Castro Blasts U. S.

HAVANA (AP) - Fidel Castro declared today the United States poses a greater threat to Cuba than earthquakes did to Chile.

The Cuban Prime Minister lashed out anew against his No. 1 target in a post-midnight bedside speech sending off a boatload of relief supplies to Chile's quake victims.

Castro led off by terming atomic bombings of "Hiroshima and Nagasaki" "assassination" and "cold blooded aggression against the civilian population."

Then he said Cuba faced "worse evils than the Chilean earthquake - great international interests who, in their egoism and blindness, didn't vacillate in hurling those atomic bombs over two cities, assassinating hundreds and hundreds of women, children and aged men."

Bar Asso. Honors Outstanding Man

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) - The Arkansas Bar Assn. will honor an outstanding attorney on outstanding attorney-citizen and an outstanding local bar association here tonight.

Presentation of the awards will highlight opening day activity of the association's 62nd annual convention. Recipients of the awards to be made for the first time this year have not been announced.

Associate Justice George Rose Smith of the Arkansas Supreme Court will be speaker at the awards dinner.

About 500 lawyers are expected to register for the meeting which ends tomorrow with election of officers. Willis B. Smith of Arkansas is outgoing president.

John C. Satterfield of Jackson Miss. a nominee for president-elect of the American Bar Assn. will make the principal address of the meeting tomorrow. His announced topic is "Is American Democracy Fading Away?"

Wounded Officer Is Improving

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Police Chief Charley Short continued to improve today in a hospital where he is recuperating from a wound suffered in a gun battle.

Short was hit in the stomach by a pistol bullet Monday during a disturbance at a restaurant.

The shot was fired by Isaac Perkins, about 55, Negro, who was shot to death by other officers just after the chief was wounded.

Perkins had been released from the Mississippi County Penitentiary only a few hours before the incident. He had served 10 months on a charge of "assault with a deadly weapon."

speech sending off a boatload of relief supplies to Chile's quake victims.

Castro led off by terming atomic bombings of "Hiroshima and Nagasaki" "assassination" and "cold blooded aggression against the civilian population."

Then he said Cuba faced "worse evils than the Chilean earthquake - great international interests who, in their egoism and blindness, didn't vacillate in hurling those atomic bombs over two cities, assassinating hundreds and hundreds of women, children and aged men."

He named A. E. Woods supervisor of rural Negro schools in Pulaski County, to the board of Arkansas AM&N College in Pine Bluff.

In order to be available, Woods resigned from the board of the Arkansas Negro Boys Industrial School at Wrightsville.

Faubus appointed J. D. Hammonds of Menifee to the Negro Boys School Board.

Arizona has two pioneer villages named Rok (in Yavapai county) and Roll (in Yuma county).

Fading Giants Facing Seven Tough Games

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco slumping Giants shove off on what could be a week of worries — seven days against Milwaukee and Pittsburgh — as they open a four-game series with the Braves tonight.

The second place Giants slid two games behind Pittsburgh in the National League race with a 7-4 loss to Cincinnati Thursday, their sixth defeat in 11 games on the home stand, while the Pirates rapped Chicago's Cubs 11-3.

Milwaukee, 4½ games behind in third place, made it seven out of nine by coming from behind for a 6-5 victory at Los Angeles Thursday night in the only other game scheduled.

In the American League, Cleveland took a 1½-game lead by defeating Boston 3-2. Detroit completed a four-game sweep at Baltimore that dropped the Orioles to second place, beating the Birds 7-5 and 7-4 in a two-night doubleheader. New York took over third place from Chicago with a 5-2 victory that spilled the White Sox to fifth place. .002 percentage points behind Detroit. Kansas City defeated Washington 7-2.

The Braves won behind Lew Burdette 5-2 and reliever Joey Jay at Los Angeles, after wiping out a 4-1 Dodger lead with five runs in the seventh against Don Drysdale 4-8.

Ed Matthews' single scored the clincher for the Braves in the seventh after Red Schoendienst tagged reliever Ed Roebuck for a three-run double. The Braves had chased Drysdale with four singles and a sacrifice fly by Frank Torre, who was hitting for Burdette, to get the rally rolling.

Duke Enider, Wally Moon and Junior Gilliam homered for the Dodgers, who have lost seven of their last 10 at home.

The Reds came from behind on four runs with two out in the seventh. They got three on Jerry Lynch's home run off loser Jack Sanford, then counted the deciding run when reliever Billy O'Dell walked Willie Jones with the bases loaded. Reliever Billy Loez then gave up solo homers by Vada Pinson and Whitey Lockman in the eighth and ninth.

Lefty Bill Henry saved it for Joe Nuxhall 1-2 by fanning pinch-hitter Willey McCovey and getting Willie Kirkland on a fly with the bases loaded in the eighth.

Don Hoak drove in three runs as the Pirates beat Glen Hobbie 5-7 for the third time. Bob Friend 7-3 won it with two innings of hitless relief by Fred Green after Ernie Banks hit a two-run homer in the sixth.

Benza Makes Barons Sorry for Release

By Vernon Butler
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Benza, a charter member of Little Rock's "Birmingham didn't want me" club, will be giving his Barons buddies a sharp needle for the rest of their current Southern Assn. series.

Benza, released by Birmingham at the start of the season, caught on with Little Rock and made the Barons rue their move last night when he lomed with the bases loaded to give the Travelers a comeback 5-4 victory over the league leaders.

It was a closely setback for Birmingham. Atlanta whipped Shreveport 4-1 to move within a half-game of the Barons. Nashville bowed to Mobile 3-2, but the Vols—now in the No. 3 spot — trail by only one length in the fierce scrap for the lead. Chattanooga jumped Memphis reliever Leroy Gregory for four runs in the ninth and shaded the Chicks 7-6.

Birmingham led by a comfortable 4-1 margin when Benza strode to the plate in the bottom of the seventh with three Travs on base. The muscular Brooklynite drove a Ron Mrozinski pitch over the fence in right field 35, than 375 feet. Nick Testa, Don Williams and Nel Getho trotted home ahead of the exuberant ex-Baron, and Whitey Merritt and Bob Leopold protected the lead for Little Rock in the eighth and ninth.

Rance Pless and Bob Hazle are other members of the Little Rock cast recently rejected by Birmingham. And Bomb Thorpe and Jay Cooke of the Travs once more wore Barons taggers.

Aristotle, some 2,300 years ago, said: "Even when laws have been written down, they ought not always to remain unaltered."

Indians Extend National Loop Lead to 1½

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians, leading the American League by 1½ games now that Baltimore's Baby Birds have laid an egg, roll into Yankee Stadium for the opener of a four-game series tonight in a showdown with the revived New York Yankees.

Cleveland now has won five in a row, sweeping a four-game set at Boston with a 3-2 decision over the last place Red Sox Thursday. Baltimore, blowing a 1½-game lead in 48 hours, dropped a two-night doubleheader to Detroit, 7-5 and 7-4; as the Tigers swept the four-game series and handed the Orioles their sixth defeat in eight games.

The Yankees, 3½ games behind after winning five of their last six, made it three straight over Chicago with a 5-2 victory that spilled the White Sox to fifth, .002 percentage points behind Detroit. Kansas City ended its losing string at five with a 7-2 victory at Washington.

In the National League, Pittsburgh regained a two-game lead with an 11-3 victory at Chicago while Cincinnati whipped second place San Francisco 7-4. Third place Milwaukee, 4½ games behind, defeated Los Angeles 6-5 in the only other game scheduled.

A sixth-inning home run by George Strickland, the first of the year by the Cleveland third baseman, hung the defeat on Bill Monbouquette 5-5. Rookie Wynn Hawkins 4-3 needed two innings of two-hit, shutout relief by Johnny Klippstein for his first victory in three decisions.

The Tigers made it six out of seven on a pair of home runs by Frank Bolling, who drove in five runs to beat reliever Arnie Portocarrero 3-2 in the opener. Then the Tiger second baseman triggered a five-run fifth with a two-run homer as Detroit wiped out a 2-1 Baltimore lead and beat Hal Skyny Brown 5-2.

Mickey Mantle's two-run homer in the fourth inning, his 11th of the year, did it for the Yankees. Rookie Johnny James 2-0 won it in relief. Frank Baumann 3-3 was the loser.

The A's junked their slump with six runs on seven consecutive hits with two out in the fifth inning. Danny Kravitz' first AL home run in a three-run, inside-the-park job, was the big blow off loser Pedro

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times. If you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

GAS STRETCHING ECONOMY mountain shrinking performance CORVAIR GIVES YOU BOTH!

The same Corvair that rolled up a whopping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run turned around to scale snow-glazed Pikes Peak earlier in the season than any other car has ever dared to try. What better proof could you ask (official United States Automobile Club observers were aboard every mile of the way) of Corvair's rare combination of light-fingered steering, sure-footed traction and tight-fisted economy? Drop down to your dealer's and see for yourself what it took to make a gallon of gas look so big and 14,110 feet of mountain look so small!
